

Quivertree Publications - Awards and Accolades

* 2002

1] Shack Chic, Art and Innovation in the South African Shack-lands

Chosen as 'The book' by Novib, sister company to Oxfam to translate into dutch and to distribute to their mailing list of 22 000 people.

2] Rights bought by Thames and Hudson in the UK

Proclaimed as 'Totally mesmerising' by the London Magazine

• 2003

1] Craig Fraser chosen to exhibit Shack Chic for UN habitat in Kenya

• 2008

1] Craig Fraser, one of fifteen South Africans chosen for the Decorex SA Walk of Fame as someone who has changed the face of decor in South Africa

FOOD BOOK AWARDS:

• 2004

1] Feast, by Frank Dangereux of La Colombe, Constantia Uitsig, chosen at the Gourmand World Cookbook awards as the Best chefs cookbook in South Africa.

Feast got a special mention with comments on the International Jury being:

"Creativity at its best, combining great technique and ingredients in a show of excellence in Africa".

During the exhibition in Sweden with the other Best Books in the World, "Feast" was also admired for its excellent front cover and all-over design, which was exceptional.

• 2006

1] Feast, went on to be chosen as one of three in best chefs books in the world.

2] Lazy Days by Phillippa Cheifitz won Best Local cookbook in South Africa

• 2008

1] Reuben Cooks: Food is Time Travel won best Chef book in South Africa, at the Gourmand World Cookbook Awards

'As satisfying as a long lazy lunch at his restaurant on a sunny day in beautiful Franschhoek, this fortifying time traveller seasoned with recipes is worth visiting and revisiting.'

– Louise McCann, Elle Decoration SA.

'Riffel's book is one you will drool over and put to good use – it's highly accessible.'

– Hilary Biller, Sunday Times.

2] Prickly Pears and Pomegranates won Best Local Cuisine Book in South African at the Gourmand World Cookbook Awards

3] Fire Water, South African Brandy - won Best Wine & Spirits Book in South Africa at the Gourmand World Cookbook Awards

• 2009

1] Prickly Pears and Pomegranates went on to win Best local cookbook in the world, at the Gourmand World Cookbook Awards

2] Fire Water, South African Brandy went on to win best Wine and Spirits book in the world, at the Gourmand World Cookbook Awards

3] South Africa Eats - won Best Culinary History Book in South Africa, at the Gourmand World Cookbook Awards

4] Africanismo, Interior Inspiration from Southern Africa, one of 20 finalists in the prestigious SOUTH competition

'An extraordinary collection of images under separate elemental 'umbrellas' of Earth, Air, Fire and Water... It is glorious, fetching soul-candy.'
– Lauren Shantall, Elle Decoration SA.

'Africanismo is wonderful – wow! ... Quivertree gets better and better, the Phaidon of our country.'
– Vanessa Badroodien, Cape Town Book Fair director.

5] Africanismo, Interior Inspiration from Southern Africa, then went on to be chosen as one of 14 pieces to represent South Africa at Experimenta 09 in Lisbon, Portugal as part of the Timeless Exhibition.

6] Quivertree Publications was chosen by Frankfurt bookfair to exhibit at the fair in 2009 along with 14 publishing companies from around the world.

'Changing the face of publishing in South Africa'

–JENNY CRWYS WILLIAMS, RADIO 702