'SHACK CHIC' ART AND INNOVATION IN SOUTH AFRICAN SHACK-LANDS'

WWW.QUIVERTREE.CO.ZA

'totally mesmerising'

- THE LONDON MAGAZINE

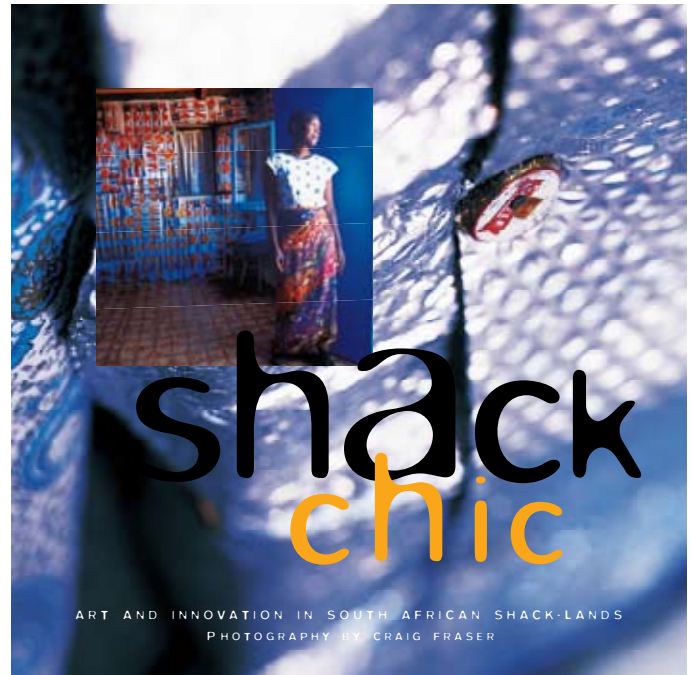

This book is a documentary on the lives of 'previously disadvantaged' but presently determined, 'previously oppressed' but presently overcoming individuals. It is about the dignity to be found in the dusty streets of South Africa's shack-lands.

While these people obviously don't take pleasure in the poverty they live in, they stand proud in the face of it. These are people who are doing the best they can with the little they have and, in the process, coming up with something aesthetically unique and fresh to offer the world.

This is creativity and ingenuity. This is Shack Chic.

'Using only available light, Fraser left the interiors unstyled to explore their true beauty. This book celebrates a decorating spirit that renews and colours South Africa's urban landscape and claims worldwide appeal.'
